Most of us agree that diverse teams drive better human capital, financial and legal results for our organizations, but according to Vault and the Minority Corporate Counsel Association, diverse lawyers still represent only 16% of law firm associates, partners and counsel. The Arizona Diamondbacks, Honeywell, Republic Services and the University of Arizona are committed to improving diversity & inclusion in our profession, and they want to share successes, strategies, best practices and areas of opportunities as it relates to diversity and inclusion in the legal profession. Join us for a moderated panel where our panelists tackle this important issue.

Panelists:

Sharad Desai, Litigation Counsel, Honeywell International Inc.

Maacah Scott, Staff Counsel, Arizona Diamondbacks

Art Lee, Deputy General Counsel, University of Arizona

Ashley Kasarjian, Senior Corporate Counsel – Employment, Republic Services
